

PRESS RELEASE

Innovative Adult Education Toolkit

Get ready to become a driving force in shaping green cities with Greenvolve's cutting-edge Adult Education Toolkit for Citizen Engagement.

Our Vision:

In Greenvolve, we're all about empowering you to be a change-maker. We believe in turning the EU objectives related to environment, climate, and energy into reality through increased citizen engagement.

Key Features of the Toolkit:

- 1. Comprehensive Learning: Dive into adult learning materials that boost your understanding of citizen involvement in green city initiatives. Enhance your critical thinking skills and become an expert of participating in public consultations.
- 2. Personal Skills: We will help you build the confidence and competence to actively participate in discussions and decision-making processes that shape the future of green cities.
- 3. Encouraging Participation: This toolkit is for everyone. It's the bridge that connects citizens and municipalities, making sure we're all working together for greener goals.
- 4. Green City Impact: By getting involved in public consultations, you're contributing to climate change mitigation and adaptation, circular economy practices, digitalization, and energy transition in your city.

Dive into the toolkit today to be prepared for turning dreams of green cities into a reality!

Head to our website to uncover two powerful downloadable resources: the Guidance for Citizen Empowerment and the Collection of Citizen Involvement Principles and Different Type of Methods.

Improve your knowledge and supercharge your city.
